Marvellous Von Hanna "An Ideal Husband" berzeugt vor allem durch die unglaubliche Wortgewandtheit von Oscar Wilde. Zunchst frechtete ich, dass das Buch schwer zu verstehen sein, aber das ist es berhaupt nicht. Oscar Wilde gelingt es wunderbar, durch die Kraft seiner Worte zu berzeugen. Ihm gelingt durch das Spiel mit Wrtern und

Konstruktionen ein Meisterwerk, das sprachlich gesehen seinesgleichen sucht. Der Inhalt ist sozial-kritisch und sehr zynisch kritisiert Wilde das Verhalten in den oberen Gesellschaftsschichten und dies gelingt ihm wunderbar durch Ironie. Ein fantastisches Buch, das man mal gelesen haben sollte.

Kurzbeschreibung On the surface, Sir Robert Chiltern is an ideal husband he has an impressive role as a member of the House of Commons and is always respectable in public and in private. His wife, Lady Chiltern, is proud of their privileged life. What she does not know is that Sir Roberts initial rise to power was founded in slightly shady circumstances, and over the course of twenty-four hours, these past indiscretions threaten to come to light, and the fate of the Chilterns marriage is soon at stake. One of Oscar Wildes most popular plays, An Ideal Husband originally ran for more than one hundred performances. Well received by critics for its wit, humor, and excellent characters, An Ideal Husband solidified Oscar Wilde's position as one of the most talented dramatists of the Victorian period. Synopsis This 1895 play revolves around blackmail and political corruption. The theme of public and private honor runs throughout the work. The play opens at a fashionable dinner party in London. Several guests are involved in a plot to build a canal through Argentina. Blackmail, past love interests, and deceit are rampant. Surprisingly there just may be a happy ending after all.
