KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. I could not stop reading this book...Von Werner Retzlaff, Friedberg, GermanyPaul, when he left the Ephesian elders, gave a warning prophecy to them:"I know that after my departure fierce wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock; and from among your own selves will arise men speaking twisted things, to draw away the disciples after them."The author shows in many details at what alarming extent Paul's words came true these days, comparing false teaching of popular preachers with biblical truth.He does not deal with peanunts in different aspects of some difficult parts of the bible, but about real brute false doctrine, that may lead believers away from Christ and is going to divide many Christian congregations all over the world.Prosperty gospel and healing are among his topics.Finally, one chapter shows in detail the Biblical Response and opens the view to "the way, the truth and the life" which is our Lord Jesus Christ.Many thanks to the author!

KurzbeschreibungApostasy is creeping into the church from televisions, books and star-personality tours of rich and blasphemous self-proclaimed prophets of God.; many of whom are the most famous pastors and teachers in the U.S. These counterfeit shepherds teach that faith is a material substance more powerful than God, accessible to all men, and capable of creating anything mans heart can desire by the mere utterance of faith-filled-words. This doctrine has leached into all areas of the theological systems of what are known as Word of Faith churches. Virtually every major area of systematic theology in this movement has been taken captive by the repercussions of this primordial error. In this heresy, God is limited. Man is unlimited. Satan fills a necessary role in atonement for sin. Health, wealth, power and all means of temptation are heralded as virtues of the faith while millions empty their bank accounts for the promise of such ambition. Preying on the poor and desperate, this movement is systematically fulfilling biblical prophesies concerning a latter-day apostasy within Christendom.KurzbeschreibungApostasy is creeping into the church from televisions, books and star-personality tours of rich and blasphemous self-proclaimed prophets of God.; many of whom are the most famous pastors and teachers in the U.S. These counterfeit shepherds teach that faith is a material substance more powerful than God, accessible to all men, and capable of creating anything mans heart can desire by the mere utterance of faith-filled-words.
