Von Jason Aaron : Astonishing Spider-Man Wolverine before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Astonishing Spider-Man Wolverine:

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. witty contribution to the buddy genreVon BorisThis was a fun read. Spider-Man and Wolverine travel through time against their will being manipulated by the machinations of an antagonist I do not want to spoil. Aaron, who has written a lot of Wolverine, knows his one protagonist too well, but the tone is lighter and less gritty than in the mainstream

Wolverine books. And Aaron also knows how to write Spider-Man as can be seen here. The book collects #1 to 6 of the limited series of the same name and some bonus work-in-progress material in the end. The art of Adam Kubert, who was the outstanding Wolverine artist in the 90s, is flawless as always. All in all some real fun, especially the banter between two characters who love to hate each other and hate to love each other, but do not expect too much in the character development department. Although the love story involved would deserve some follow-up treatment in the mainstream books. Anyway recommended.
