Adult Story Set in New ZealandVon Jada RykerStuck in a "troubled school," Sophia realizes she's been kidding herself. It's not normal or acceptable to feel like a hunted animal for six hours everyday. Dane is from "the other side of the tracks". He's handsome, interested in Sophia and part of a group of bullies. Can the two teens overcome their own challenges and find something special with one another on the wrong side of the tracks? Talented K. T. Bowes once again demonstrates her versatility as a writer with Free from the Tracks, the first in her new Teen Mayhem series. She captures their trials as she develops their characters.

Kurzbeschreibung A girl with secrets. A bad boy in trouble. A community out to get them. Driven out of her friendship group, Sophia finds comfort in all the wrong places. The secret she keeps will tear her world apart and it's easier to become involved in someone else's troubles than face her own. Stepping out of her seemingly perfect life and model home, she finds a whole other world on her doorstep. Is it possible to sit in class with someone for four years without seeing their hunger, the holes in their shoes or the bruises on their body? What would you do? Awarded a 5* review from Readers' Favorite. Readers are saying, "Talented K T Bowes once again demonstrates her versatility as a writer with Free from the Tracks. ber den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende K T Bowes lives in New Zealand between the Haka Ranges and the Waikato River, where many of her novels are set. Raised in England to soldiering parents, she has lived in four different countries, settling in New Zealand in 2006 with her husband and four children. The dumbest thing she ever did was jump out of a plane at 2000 feet, attached to a fragile piece of silk because a friend asked her to. The best thing she ever did was marry her husband after knowing him only a few months and the scariest thing was arriving at Auckland Airport with a one-way ticket, four small children and a suitcase each. K T Bowes loves painting Folk Art and landscapes as well as writing. She shares her home with her husband, a fickle ginger cat and often a crazy horse or two in the paddock.
