Great summaries, great discussion questions - definitely teacher-friendlyVon TofuBeastThe topics addressed in "1984" are essential. MAX NOTES not only gives understandable summaries and character presentations, but also interpretation questions. This book is great for teachers wanting to prepare worksheets for chapter discussions or/and in search for some good essay topic questions. For students it's also a great book because it gives you an idea what one can see between the lines. Great "Notes"!0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Loved it!Von Ein Kunde1984 is a really horrifying book, but only if you know the principles of government. It's rather like Animal Farm in that respect. I read the book over and over, never getting tired of it, especially the near-ending. Parts of it are confusing: like, is O'Brien a good guy or a bad guy or what? The ending I found disappointing, but it would have been unrealistic for Winston and Julia to come out on top. I guess 1984 is supposed to show the harshness of totalitarianism and the fruitlessness of fighting against them. Overall, a good book, but not for the young or sensitive.
