KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. A down to earth tale of experiences !Von Rohan JaniThe experiences shared in this book are straight from the authors heart. It doesn't take time for the reader to get imaginative and start sharing the same experience as the author. What I like the most is that the experiences shared are from normal people like you and me and nowhere in the book the author tries to go over the top with false imagination. The book is like an exotic wine, not to be gulped down over one session, but to be enjoyed sip by sip. True to the title "Come explore with Me".

KurzbeschreibungCarina Oster takes you on a joyful, at times whimsical, yet always informative, eyewitness round trip of the amazing country of Germany, covering some of the absolute highlights, from north to south, sharing photos that are sure to inspire (Kindle Edition - Full Colour). In this highly personal travel story/guide, the reader join in on the fun as the author along with her loving partner Sven, embark on a winding journey through the valleys of the Moselle and Rhine Rivers, scattered with castles and vineyards, enjoy a glass or two of sparkling German white wine, move on to the stunning medieval town of Rothenburg ob der Tauber where she is proud to get to know some of its hospitable people in personal interviews. The couple get lost, go around in circles, but at last find their way to the famous Castle of Neuschwanstein, The Eagles Nest, Berlin, the coast of the Baltic Sea and everything large and small in between discovering hidden gems not known to the regular tourist, getting captivated by the culture, the complex history, the sagas, legends and magnificent nature of this diverse country.KurzbeschreibungCarina Oster takes you on a joyful, at times whimsical, yet always informative, eyewitness round trip of the amazing country of Germany, covering some of the absolute highlights, from north to south, sharing photos that are sure to inspire (Kindle Edition - Full Colour). With a neverending curiosity, constantly exploring new places and meeting the people in them, she shares her thoughts on what she discovers, as well as personal reflections on life in general. After completing literary studies at Linnaeus University, Vaxjo, Sweden, her love for Shakespeare intensified - a love she has no problem combining with an equally large fascination for the classic daytime drama.
