Von Ein Kunde This book is the perfect combination of story and illustration. Higgs' gentle story will be a boon to children who are afraid of the dark. And the illustrations are beautiful--cool blues and purples. A lovely, sweet book.

Kurzbeschreibung Nobody Needs to be afraid of the dark. Poor Griffin. Every night when he turns out the lights, his room turns as black as a starless sky. He tries to be brave, but his toes curl up and his hands grow cold and his heart beats fast and his legs turn to jelly. Can someone take away the shakes and the shivers and the quakes and the quivers? Is there anybody big enough to keep him safe? Tenderly written to help calm children's fears, this delightfully illustrated tale reassures children that they are not alone in feeling afraid of the dark and offers them this comforting promise: God's perfect love takes away fear (1 John 4:18). Autorenkommentar No one needs to be afraid of the dark! Young Griffin, bless his heart, is afraid of the dark. It makes his toes curl up and his hands grow cold and his heart beat fast and his legs turn to jelly. His mother knows exactly what he needs to hear to let go of his fears...and sleep tight. My newest children's book is for kids 4 to 8, but if you're an adult who treasures beautifully illustrated children's books as much as I do, I think you'll find that artist Nancy Munger has outdone herself on this one! We had the delight of doing the Parable Series together, all of which won the ECFA Gold Medallion. We pray this one is a "winner," too...measured not by awards received, but by little lives touched!
