Real Examples of God's Provision and Sovereignty Von Krista Iverts I am used to doctrine textbooks that state the fact that God is real, loving, and that he provides for us. But here is a book that is told in the humble language of a man who only wants to honor the King he serves. It tells the true story of a man who risked everything to encourage brothers and sisters behind the Iron Curtain. Even now there are brothers and sisters in places like China, Sudan, and the Middle East who are suffering, too. Read this book and take it as a challenge to care for those children of God who feel lonely and isolated, whether they be Sudanese, Chinese - or your neighbors, your colleagues, or your classmates. The call is simple: Pray and serve. 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Jack Reviews God's Smuggler Von Jack God's Smuggler is a thrilling story! The title may infer that the book is only about the smuggling work of Brother Andrew, but his exciting life's story is also told. God's Smuggler kept me captivated from the beginning to all the way to the end and showed me that no matter what the circumstance, any child of the greatest King can live like royalty.
