KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Both fun and educational readVon Helpful Advice`Little Lucy Goes to School' written by Ilene Cooper and illustrated by John Kanzler brings nice story with well-made artwork about cute little beagle named Lucy who in order to avoid loneliness at home decided to also go to school.Lucy is a beloved dog in Quinn family and every morning after the breakfast she stays alone with Mrs. Quinn because both Mr. Quinn and boy Bobby are going out, one to work, other to school. Lucy was sad because she doesn't understand why she has to stay at home when almost everyone else is leaving. But when Mrs. Quinn will take her by car to school to deliver lunch box for Bobby, Lucy will be able to get to know a place where all children go... 'Little Lucy Goes to School' is part of 'Step into Reading' series which provide young children possibility to improve their reading skills while experiencing adventures of many cute characters. In this book main hero is dog named Lucy and through her story, children will learn many things about the school. Therefore, Ilene Cooper's book is both fun and educational read and because of that I can recommend it.
