Inspiring! Von Ein Kunde The experience of a family in Kabul and Amsterdam, working amongst the drug addicts, hippies and prostitutes! Reading the book has allowed me to see the society with a different eye. It is an inspiration for people with a heart for missions, and a heart for the people searching vainly for the meaning of life through all sorts of means and ways. The book allows us to look at people at the edge of society with a different outlook and love, seeing them not as victims of society but as people that God loves and pursues a loving relationship with. What an inspiring book to read and to be challenged to step out of our comfort zones to share that exciting and healing relationship to God with people that are around us.

Kurzbeschreibung When thousands of young people checked out of Western society and sought enlightenment in the East, Floyd and Sally McClung set aside the comforts of American suburbia and answered God's call to reach out to them with the gospel. In Kabul, Afghanistan, a key stop on the hippy trail, and later in Amsterdam, Holland, the West's own window to that trail, the McClungs committed themselves to meeting the penniless, the drugged, the sick, and the disillusioned right where they were. Whether among hippy seekers or the addicts and prostitutes of Amsterdam's infamous Red Light District, the McClungs lived out a message of hope. Living on the Devil's Doorstep is a dramatic example of the difference one family can make when they are willing to trust God and walk in obedience to His call for their lives.
