First of all, I want to thank all of you, and all of the others to whom you speak about Lauren. The love that has flooded in and the prayers that are being uttered on her behalf have helped us immensely.

She is still heavily sedated due to her condition, but they say she can hear my voice, so I tell her about everyone I have spoken to, that they send their love and best wishes, and their prayers, including numerous congregations across the spiritual spectrum, both synagogues and churches around the world. I have been informed that Dr. ... Doctors will be added to the group.

Lauren is putting up a heck of a fight. She has been through two surgeries and continues to rest on. She has a long road in front of her, but she is ...
As of 5 PM ...

Love, Greg & Lauren
For those of you who may not know the story, she was entering the lobby of the North Tower of the World Trade Center when a fireball exploded from the elevator shaft. She and two others managed to run out of the building, all three of them on fire. A passerby across the street ran to them, reaching Lauren first, and put the flames out. He then put Lauren in an ambulance, so she was the first person evacuated. He certainly saved her life.

She was at St. Vincent's, where I joined her, and then at 5 PM Tuesday rode in the front of the ambulance when she was transferred to the Bush Center of NY Presbyterian.

When I got to St. Vincent's, she told me that she decided to see Dr. Tyler and for me, so I am taking her at her word.

Thank you for all your support and prayers.

Love,
Greg & Lauren

Kundenrezensionen Hilfreichste Kundenrezensionen 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Einfach lesenswert!!! Von Ein Kunde Zum ersten Mal wage ich mich an ein englisches Buch, und ich kann dieses Buch einfach nur weiterempfehlen, es ist sehr persönlich geschrieben, durch E-Mails, die Greg an Freunde, Bekannte usw. schreibt, über das Überleben seiner Frau, die über 80% ihrer Haut verbrannt hat. Bei dem Anschlag war sie unten in der Lobby, ein Feuerball erwischte sie, und nur durch viel Glück und ihre eigene Lebenskraft überlebte sie den Anschlag. Dieses Buch macht sehr betroffen, und es zeigt einem auf, wie sehr sich Leben innerhalb von Sekunden ändern kann, und wie stark Liebe sein kann!! Auf dem Weg zurück zum Leben, Wochen des Hoffens und des Kampfens, andere sterben in der Klinik des Burn Centers, Lauren überlebt!

Kurzbeschreibung Early on the morning of September 11, 2001, Lauren Manning—a wife, the mother of a ten-month-old son, and a senior vice president and partner at Cantor Fitzgerald—came to work, as always, at One World Trade Center. As she stepped into the lobby, a fireball exploded from the elevator shaft, and in that split second her life was changed forever. Lauren was burned over 82.5 percent of her body. As he watched his wife lie in a drug-induced coma in the ICU of the Burn Center at New York-Presbyterian Hospital, Greg Manning began writing a daily journal. In the form of e-mails to family, friends, and colleagues, he recorded Lauren's harrowing struggle—and his own tormented efforts to make sense of an act that defies all understanding. This book is that e-mail diary: detailed, intimate, inspiring messages that end, always, as if a prayer for a happy outcome: LOVE, GREG LAUREN We share this story day by day by astonishing day. Greg writes of the intricate surgeries, the painful therapies, and the constant risk of infection Lauren endured. Through his eyes we come to know the doctors, nurses, aides, and therapists who cared for her around the clock with untiring devotion and sensitivity. We also come to know the families with whom he shared wrenching hospital vigils for their own loved ones who were waging a battle that some would not win. It was, most of all, Greg's belief that Lauren would win her brave fight for life that kept him writing. Through his eyes we see what she could not—their toddlers' first steps, the video of his first birthday party, the compassionate messages of hope from around the world. And we are there as Lauren gradually emerges into awareness, signaling first with her eyes, then with smiles, her understanding of the words Greg speaks to her, the poems he recites, the songs he plays. Most miraculously, we are there when Lauren walks out of the Burn Center. The world knows all too well both the nightmare and the heroism that have marked this terrible time in history. But no account of September 11 matches the astonishing personal story Greg Manning records in these spontaneous and heartfelt pages. It is a story that invites us to share, e-mail after e-mail, the perilous course of a mortally wounded woman who by sheer will and courage emerges from near death because she is determined to live for her husband and her son. And it is equally the story of a man who, as he stays by her side through these long weeks and months, discovers anew the depth of his love and admiration for the woman who becomes his hero. From Booklist The heartbreaking yet heartwarming story of one of the World Trade Center survivors.
