Behind Kids books are outstanding Von Ein Kunde The Left Behind Kids books are wonderful. They give a wonderful feeling of what will happen after the rapture. The two authors Jerry B. Jenkins and Tim LaHaye are wonderful authors. Basically they are about a group of kids who are left behind. They all had friends or family as examples but either didn't expect Christ or pretended to. They all meet and go to a church led by a deacon who was left behind. They are the best thing you can read. (about the rapture for kids) Enjoy reading them if you do they are worth every cent you pay. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. The best yet in this series! Von Ein Kunde This book is the most exciting and thrilling of these books so far, I have yet to read 7 and 8, but I expect no less from them or the next eight scheduled to come out within next year. These books are excellent, and if these books don't change your teenager's mind about coming to Christ, nothing will. Be sure you start with the first book, otherwise you'll be confused and it'd spoil the whole thing! 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. This book was so exciting that I wish I could read faster!! Von Ein Kunde The characters took exciting risks so huge that my heart was racing the whole time I was reading the book. It was so exciting that I was mad when I read the end and it was a total cliff hanger. I almost wish I waited for book seven to come out before I read book six, so I could find out what happened right away!!!!!!

Judd, Vicki, Lionel, and Ryan all pitch in to make the paper happen, despite pressure from Carpathia's faculty and even a mysterious, possibly demonic hard drive crash. But with high-tech help from new friends and the aid of prominent journalist and eyewitness to evil Bruce Williams, the growing group manages to deliver The Underground to almost every student in school. Everything's going well until Global Community heavies get involved--and one of the Trib Force members gets caught because she spread the word of God!
