KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. For worriers.Von JessicaI have spent a lot of time working with many different kids and sometimes you find a worrier. The kid that worries about things. The kid who worries about people, places, animals and the what if's. This book is such a lovely gentle book to try and get those kids to take a risk with their heart. To get them to realise that living in a world of worry, stops you experiencing the world in colour. The illustrations and words are simple, but perfect.It is also perfect for those who are grieving, have experienced loss or had a major life change of some sort.2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Niedliche GeschichteVon ZissiMeine Tochter findet die Geschichte ganz toll , sie ist kurz und witzig bebildert , da kommt das Buch meist dann zum Einsatz , wenn unbedingt Vorgelesen werden soll aber wir eigentlich gerade keine Zeit haben .0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. TollVon NadjaSEin schnes Buch ber Freundschaft. Eher was fr kleine Kinder (meine Tochter ist 2), da sehr wenig Text. Die Bilder sind jedes fr sich wunderbar und das Pappbilderbuch ist sehr gut verarbeitet.

KurzbeschreibungAn exciting intergalactic adventure from shining star Oliver Jeffers, creator of Lost and Found.(This ebook is optimised for Kindle and is best read on a tablet such as the Kindle Fire. We recommend you download a sample to your device before purchase.) One day a boy finds an aeroplane in his cupboard. Up, up, up and away he flies, high into the sky. Whizzing past clouds, stars and planets until suddenly, he runs out of petrol! Miles from earth, the boy crashes into the moon and waits. Just as he is beginning to get cold and lonely, a friendly martian appears from the darkness, also with a broken aircraft. Together they come up with a super plan to float the boy back down to earth to collect his toolbox. Can the boy find his way back home safely and will he ever make it back up to the moon to rescue his friend?
