Metropolis...This very interesting photo tour of Tokyo, Taipei and Hong Kong includes over 90 pictures from several tourist sites and historic locations. A brief history or small amount of information is given before each group of pictures. The Photos are from the following sites: In Tokyo You will see: The Temple of the 47 Ronin with his interesting story...Both Tokyo towers, the old one looking a bit like a futuristic Eiffel-Tower, and the new one, completed 2012 and called by the locals Tokyo Sky Tree (The Fotos are made from the top of the old tower)...A Shinto temple, one of the tens of thousands to be found all around Japan to worship the various "kami" - the spiritual essences of gods or spirits...Also a Buddhist temple, and various shots from around Tokyo, including the "Lying Olympic Flame"...The Fotos from Taipeh, the capital of Taiwan are shot from Taipei 101, from 2010 the second highest building in the world. Clearly visible the smog that covers this enormous city and fotos from one of the Taipei night markets...From Hong Kong: the Men Mo temple - for Men, the God of literature and Mo, the one for the martial arts. Then You can admire the fishing village with the Floating Restaurant, the business district with major corporate buildings, and shots from all around Hong Kong by day and night. This foto book is highly recommended for those who have colours on the Kindle, or to be looked at on computer, Laptop or tablet. But yet the in the black/white format of my old kindle 4 they are very interesting. Made for all those who love travelling - in person or only from the armchair... :)
