UNIFICATION CHURCH IS MORE THAN A CHURCH, IT'S A MOVEMENTThe Unification Church, also called the Family Federation for World Peace and Unification, is a new religious movement founded in South Korea in 1954 by the late Rev. Sun Myung Moon. Since its founding, the church has expanded throughout the world with most members living in East Asia and continues to expand and deepen its missionary outreach to millions of people around the world.. It has sponsored many organizations and projects over the years, including businesses, news media, projects in education and the arts, service projects, interfaith events, and social activism. He served as a church missionary and pioneer with the primary task as a lecturer on the Divine Principle, the teachings of the church. In June 1996, Mira graduated from the Unification Theological Seminary (www.uts.edu), a graduate school established in 1975 by founder the Reverend Sun Myung Moon, in Barrytown, New York. The seminary is accredited by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education, an institutional accrediting agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education and the Council for Higher Education Accreditation. The seminary gave Mira a broader understanding about the teachings of different religions and church denominations. Mira earned an M.R.E. (Master of Religious Education) in a two-year course program. Following his graduation, Mira served as a church worker and traveled to South America, Asia, and other countries for church outreach. Mira served as the full-time local church pastor in Alaska for five years and for two years in the city of Seattle, Washington, where he currently serves as one of the assistant local pastors. In 1992, the Reverend and Mrs. Sun Myung Moon introduced Mira to his Japanese wife, and they were married along with 30,000 couples in a mass wedding in Seoul, Korea. Mira and his wife have a lovely daughter.
